ITALIANS SEIZE 3 ISLANDS

GREEK FLEET IS HIDING IN PORT

Threat of War Dispelled as Way Is Sought to Meet Rome's Demands

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Italians have seized the Greek islands of Merlera, Fano and Mathraki, near Corfu, according to a Central News dispatch from Rome this afternoon.

It is reported from Trieste that the Greeks have arrested many persons, including two men who are charged with being the actual assassins of General Tellini.

ROME, Sept. 6.—Italian warships have dropped anchor off Leros island, according to word from Corfu this afternoon. Greece was ordered to turn this island over to Turkey, but has not yet done so. It is rumored that a plot has been found to unite all the Aegean islands into a republic.

War Threat Dispelled
PARIS, Sept. 6.—The Greek fleet has been withdrawn to Volo, in the Aegean sea, to avoid contact with the Italian fleet in Greek waters, it was learned from the foreign office today.

The allied council of ambassadors will meet tomorrow morning to discuss the best method of investigating the killing of Italian officials on Greek soil.

It is now regarded as absolutely certain that war will be averted. The only difficulty is arranging a meeting through which Greece will satisfy Italian demands without "loss of Greek national honor."

A statement issued at the foreign office said: "The Italian-Greek situation is no longer critical."

GENEVA, Sept. 6.—The League of Nations assembly meeting was postponed indefinitely today, owing to the decision of small nations to make a sensational fight upon the floor for intervention in behalf of Greece. The meeting was to have opened at 11 o'clock this morning.

ATHENS, Sept. 6.—Italy today presented to Greece a formal claim for 20,000,000 lire for the cost of military occupation of Corfu, Paxos and Antipaxos.

The Athens Chamber of Commerce today adopted a resolution asking the government to sever all commercial relations with Italy.

Peace or War? Fate of Nations Lies in Hands of These Chiefs

Left to right, Col. Stylianos Gonatas, Greek premier; Premier Benito Mussolini, and Foreign Minister Alexandris of Greece.

The fate of nations rests in the hands of Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy and Premier Gonatas and Foreign Minister Alexandris of Greece. Mussolini demands an abject apology from Greece for the slaying of five Italian members of the Albanian boundary commission in Greece. Greece has refused to comply and implored intervention of the League of Nations.

DOUBLE BAIL IN JAPAN TO SEEK SPEEDING CASES MUCH MATERIAL

Judge Lowe Scores Reckless Autoists as Menace To Pedestrians

Selfish disregard for life and property on the part of certain motorists, who are taking advantage of the liberality of the new California Vehicle Act, was bitterly denounced this morning by Judge F. H. Lowe of the municipal police court.

As the result of observations made since this legislation went into effect the first of this month, Judge Lowe this morning issued instructions to the police department to double the bail on almost all cases. By this order, bail, which has previously been $15 for many of the offenses, will be automatically increased to $30.

Streets Dangerous
A person who uses the streets now does so at his own risk, in the opinion of Judge Lowe. Although he has derived much pleasure from his Ford sedan, he stated that he has about decided to sell it and to return once more to the ranks of pedestrians.

The worst feature of the whole traffic situation, according to Judge Lowe, is the fact that the majority of law violators are not responsible citizens, who are anxious to be law-abiding, but irresponsible and hare-brained motorists, whose only desire is for speed and more speed, regardless of the cost.

"Only about twenty-five per cent of the motorists are violating the law," asserted Judge Lowe. "These drivers have rear mirrors attached to their windshields and when they see or hear a motorcycle approaching the shut off their motor."

Another fact that makes the punishment of the culprits extremely difficult, in the experience of Judge Lowe, is the fact that the state law requires the arresting motorcycle officer to permit them five days in which to appear in court whenever they are willing to sign a citation ticket. About ten per cent of the worst offenders deliberately give fictitious addresses and fail to appear in court. In some cases, they give correct addresses, but move secretly before they can be located by an officer of the court.

In a district as thickly populated as Los Angeles county to locate them is an almost impossible task.

Judge F. H. Lowe regards the present situation as both serious and alarming, owing to the constant increasing use of motor vehicles.

DEATH CRASH HEARING IS UNDER WAY

Youth on Trial for Fatal Automobile Accident Here Recently

ALFRED R. DANIELS, Hollywood youth, today is on trial for alleged manslaughter in Judge Shenk's department of the Los Angeles superior court, being held responsible by a local coroner's jury here February 28 for the death of Mrs. Patience Akers, wife of Charles Akers, 108 North Adams street.

Daniels was the driver of an automobile which crashed into the Akers' machine at the intersection of Tenth street and Raymond avenue on Sunday, February 25, resulting in the death of Mrs. Akers.

Remains Silent
Since his arrest, it is reported, he has refused to discuss the case with officers, and, in the opening session of the trial this morning, Deputy District Attorney W. Maxwell Burke stated he would introduce witnesses who would testify that Daniels was speeding at forty-five miles an hour when the accident occurred.

The machine driven by Daniels is said to belong to his sister, a motion picture actress. It plowed into the middle of the light touring car and catapulted the Akers family to the street. Mr. Akers and daughter Thelma escaped with minor contusions.

Dies of Injuries
Mrs. Akers and daughter Philippine were removed to the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital, the mother dying two days later from her injuries.

Daniels is 19 years of age. He had two companions on the ill-fated trip to Glendale, whom it is expected will testify for him.

Several real estate salesmen witnessed the crash, and it is expected they will be called by the state.

Sergeant A. Kerns of the police department was unable to locate the dog, which is a large animal with a frayed piece of rope dangling from his neck.

Mrs. H. C. BURNELL, San Francisco.

Two-thirds of Tokio are in ruins and the whole city of Yokohama destroyed, the Japanese embassy was officially advised this afternoon by the Tokio foreign office. The cable dispatch was the first official word of the disaster to reach the embassy.

Deny Premier's Death
Reports that Premier Yamamoto was missing were discounted today at the Japanese embassy here. Officials pointed out that they had received a dispatch signed by the premier and dated September 2, while reports that he was missing were dated September 1.

The Japanese catastrophe, with its losses amounting to billions of dollars, will not affect the American financial world, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon declared today.

American companies, having holdings in Japan, and American owners of Japanese securities, Mellon said, will not be seriously affected by the earthquake, even though some losses are incurred in this country.

"Japanese bonds probably will be issued to cover the cost of reconstruction," he added.

TOKIO TOTAL OF SLAIN IS 30,000

Official Statement Declares Number of Injured Will Reach 100,000

TOMIOKA, Japan, Sept. 6 (via Radio Corporation of America).—Thirty thousand persons, including Americans and other foreigners, perished in the great disaster at Tokio, said a statement from the Japanese home office today. One hundred thousand were injured, some seriously. The houses destroyed were placed at 350,000.

The Yusen building, one of Japan's most modern, was almost totally destroyed. The Asakusa Kanon building was damaged, but remained standing.

The scene in Fukagawa was described as pitiable. Two thousand five hundred refugees are there without shelter, and provisions are scarce.

Yokohama was annihilated, the home office statement said.

The fate of the great Japanese naval base at Yokohama and its inhabitants is unknown at the present time, the statement added.

Kamakura Ruined
Great damage was done at Kamakura, twelve miles south of Yokohama, where all houses were reported collapsed and later consumed in the conflagration.

All villas in and around Hayama were lost. Hiratsuka and Okiso met the same fate. Slight damage was done by the seismic disturbance at Kodzu, but the town suffered none from fire. West of Mishima the damage was also reported as slight.

The Japanese ministry is taking all steps within their power to alleviate the suffering of foreigners. A detached building on the imperial palace grounds has been thrown open to the destitute foreigners.

Princes Escape
Prince Hirofuda, of the house of Kwach, at first reported killed, is safe, according to the statement, but had a narrow escape from death. Prince Saionji also narrowly escaped when his villa near Tokio was destroyed.

Mitsui & Company, industrial capitalists, have offered to the government their services and capital in constructing a series of barracks to provide shelter for the thousands of homeless in the vicinity of Tokio. The first barracks to be erected, if the offer is accepted, will be one in Hibiya park.

MANY WITHOUT CLOTHING, LACK WATER SUPPLY IN CITIES OF DEATH AND RUIN

Premier Missing, Methodist Missionaries Safe, Medical Resources Overtaxed, According to Latest News From Stricken Nation

For International News Service
While Tokio's death list in the terrific earthquake that rocked all Japan was officially placed at 30,000 today, the total death toll is not yet available. It is likely exact figures will never be known because many bodies have disappeared and others were cremated without identification.

A radio dispatch received by the Japanese consulate in Manila Saturday said that the Japanese premier was missing. He was slightly injured by a falling building.

That Yokohama, Japan's chief seaport, was totally destroyed is now officially confirmed.

All the Methodist missionaries are safe.

Despite disaster the spirit of the Japanese people is buoyant and already plans are being discussed for rebuilding all the cities, towns and villages that were destroyed.

The plight of the refugees is deplorable. Many of them are without clothing and drinking water. The medical resources of Japan are heavily over-taxed by illness and injuries sustained during the quake, storm, tidal wave and conflagration.

Nearly half of the $5,000,000 requested by the American Red Cross for Japanese relief has been raised.

By LLOYD LEHRBAS
For International News Service

SHANGHAI, Sept. 6.—The spirit of Japan is not broken. This is the consensus of opinion of refugees who continue to pour into Shanghai from the zone of horror, death and desolation which extends for scores and scores of miles to the northeast and southwest of snow-capped Fujiyama, the holy mountain of the Japanese people.

Tokio, capital and largest city of Japan, began today the gigantic task of unshackling itself from the ravages of earthquake, fire, storm and tidal wave, that leveled Japan's principal port, Yokohama, and destroyed at least two-thirds of the capital itself, including numerous smaller towns near the two cities.

The hideous nightmare that has assailed the island empire since the titanic earthquake, fire, typhoon and tidal wave disaster of last Saturday may have temporarily spread an overwhelming pall of superstitious fear and terror over millions of poor benumbed refugees from the disaster area, but today the people of the Rising Sun are slowly and surely regaining their stoic composure and, with the fatalistic calm so characteristic of their race, they are now setting hands to reconstruct from the ruins of the fairest portion of their land the foundation for a greater nation and a greater civilization.

Picturesque Cities and Shrines Topped by Quakes

In spite of reports emanating from Japan yesterday that the death toll from the recent cataclysm has been greatly exaggerated, there is a persistent belief that this is not the case, estimates from sources agreeing that at least 300,000 casualties have resulted from the violent catastrophe, including 130,000 dead in and around Tokio and 100,000 in Yokohama.

Kamakura, picturesque city in the beautiful fertile region of Sagami bay, twelve miles south of Yokohama, is also in ruins. The world-famous Dai Butsu Buddha, a bronze sculpture of heroic proportions, is said to have toppled over. Kamakura dates from the seventh century of the Christian era, and was the capital of the Shogunate for four hundred years.

Thousands of refugees are arriving at Kobe aboard vessels from Yokohama. Included among the ships arriving at Kobe today were President Jefferson, U. S. shipping board trans-Pacific liner, and the French steamer Andre Lebon.

The Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Canada is en route to Shanghai with 1,400 refugees from Yokohama. Many of them were severely injured.

Urgent Appeals for Relief Come From Stricken Area

Urgent appeals for relief are hourly arriving in this port from the stricken area of Japan.

No accurate estimate has so far been possible of the foreign dead as the result of the catastrophe. Refugees already in Shanghai place the number of foreigners who perished in the disaster at more than 500.

Up to today the names of sixty-two foreigners who perished in the Japanese holocaust have been reported. Five are listed as missing.

The American list of dead was augmented today by the loss of the lives of W. McMillan and W. T. Blume, of the General Electric company. They were killed when that building collapsed in Tokio.

List of Missing Foreign Residents Are Given

The following foreigners are reported missing and believed dead: C. E. SCHNELLY, Standard Oil company.

MAURICE RUSSELL, who was the oldest foreign resident of Yokohama.

MRS. HOLYOAK BOX, milliner, Yokohama.

A daughter of Mrs. Box, Yokohama.

A. J. G. PERIERA, chief clerk of the chartered bank, Yokohama.

F. J. WEVILL, Yokohama.

J. READ, Canadian Pacific steamship staff, Yokohama.

Among the seriously injured is Dr. Webb of the United States naval hospital at Yokohama.

Mr. Forth of the American naval hospital, Yokohama, is missing.

A sister of Mrs. Albert Mandel, whose name appears in the list of dead, is Mrs. L. E. Fiegelstein, residing at 9017 Park Gate avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

Property damage in Tokio continues to be estimated at between $2,500,000,000 and $5,000,000,000.

Communication between Tokio and Yokohama has been restored. Conditions in the port city are reported to be acute with a shortage of food and medical supplies.

Communications Re-Established!

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—A telegraphic wire is now operating between Tokio and Osaka, thereby establishing direct communication for the first time in four days, said a dispatch to the state department tonight from Shanghai. It was reported also that radio is being operated out of Tokio via the U. S. S. Huron.

Social Events

Meet On Terrace

The attractive east terrace at the Tuesday Afternoon club-house provided an ideal place yesterday for a meeting of Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, chairman of ways and means of the club, her committee members and the curators of all sections.

Mrs. Montgomery called this club group together to consider plans for the coming club year, and, in presenting her ideas for ways and means activities, she placed special emphasis on the combined efforts of the club women in inspiring the co-operation of all friends of the club.

For the coming year it was decided that each section is to select one month for a benefit affair. This will avoid a conflict in dates.

The first big benefit affair, and the most brilliant, planned for the fall and winter, will be the society circus to be held November 16 and 17 at the clubhouse. It will be carried out on a larger scale than the circus the club gave last year.

Announcement was made that the ways and means committee is sponsoring the concert to be given at the clubhouse September 22 by Henry Cantor.

One of the pleasures of the meeting yesterday was the presence of Miss Eva Daniels, club publicity chairman, who has just returned home from four months in the east. Miss Daniels told of the pleasures of her trip to her former home, Boston, Mass., and other eastern cities, and expressed enthusiasm at taking up her work for the club.

Shrine Affair

Mrs. Evelyn G. Pierce, worthy high priestess of the Omar Shrine, White Shrine of Jerusalem, issued a call for all members to be at the Masonic temple on South Brand boulevard promptly at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night for a short meeting.

Later they will motor to Hollywood for a reception in the Masonic temple there for Ernest E. Ford, supreme watchman of the shepherds.

Informal Evening

Hill and her assistants arranged an informal social meeting and after the camp meeting the veterans joined the Auxiliary company for refreshments.

For Mrs. Ocker

Mrs. R. E. Chase and her sister, Mrs. Charles Edwin Parish of Los Angeles, have issued invitations to a reception for Friday afternoon September 14, honoring Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker, who has just returned from a year's visit in the East. Wants Town Criers to Stop Over-Charging

PARIS, Sept. 6. — M. Emile Desvaux, a Paris alderman, demands that the "town crier" of old be re-established in the public markets, that prices may be kept down. Monsieur Desvaux claims that if official prices are cried throughout the market all buyers and sellers will have to be guided by the price quoted. Profiteers will thereby be snipped in the bud and the fair sellers will get in on the ground floor.

DEATHS—FUNERALS

A. E. ECKLEBARGER
Glendale friends of A. E. Ecklebarger, former Glendale resident, will be shocked to learn of his death, which occurred this morning, Thursday, September 6, 1923, at his home in Pomona. The cause of his death was not learned from the brief telephone message to Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Starkey of Burbank.

Mr. Ecklebarger had many friends in Glendale, having conducted a grocery store with T. A. Wright and later being proprietor of a shoe store on Broadway.

After giving up his grocery business, Mr. Ecklebarger and family moved to a ranch at McFarland. They then returned to Glendale and Mr. Ecklebarger opened the shoe store. Later they moved to a ranch home in Pomona, at 440 East Grand avenue.

Mr. Ecklebarger is survived by his wife and two sons, Harold and Kenneth. He was an active member of the First Methodist church and the Odd Fellows lodge.

Guests Depart

Mrs. A. H. Mayne, Sr., and daughter, Miss Mary Mayne, who have been visiting relatives in the south for the past two months, returned to their home in Salt Lake last week. The trip was made by auto and they report that the return was made in five days over good roads with fine weather. While in the South they were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Mabry, of 115 East Acacia street, and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Mayne, Jr., of 1336 South Orange street and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Mayne of Hollywood.

Last week Attorney and Mrs. Emery entertained as dinner guests at their home, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hart and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Menk.

Entertain Board

According to their custom each year, Dr. and Mrs. V. Hunter Brink, entertained the official board of the Central Avenue Methodist church, of which Dr. Brink is pastor, at the parsonage, 1124 South Central avenue, on Wednesday night after the prayer meeting. Owing to the absence from the city of a number of the board there was not a full representation but the evening was very pleasantly spent with the pastor and his wife. During the evening Mrs. Brink served ice cream and cake to the guests.

Hold Election

The Foreign Missionary Society of the Central Avenue Methodist church will hold a business meeting and election of officers at the home of Mrs. Casper Tuttle, 617 West Vine street, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. J. R. Struckon of 342 West Eulalia street, is the president.

A continuation of the study of "Amendments" will occupy the time tomorrow morning at the meeting of the Women's Parliamentary Law club at the Public Library. Mrs. Harry Greenwau will direct the study and drill and the meeting will open at 10 o'clock.

Meredith Denies Any Senate Aspirations

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 6.—E. T. Meredith, former secretary of agriculture, will not be a candidate next year for the United States senate from Iowa, according to a statement issued from his office here today.

"I have had no thought of entering politics again," the former secretary said. "Gossip which links my name to Iowa senatorial politics is absolutely without foundation."

Meredith, according to Washington dispatches, was considering suggestions that he oppose Senator Smith W. Brookhart at the next election.

Movies Seek Beauty Who Can Milk Cow

NEWCASTLE, Ind., Sept. 6.—Girls, if you would break into the movies, learn to milk. Producers of an historical film of Henry county are looking for a beautiful girl to milk a cow in the picture. The best looking cow in the country is being sought to play opposite the girl in the milking scene.

OIL WELL AT COMPTON

Announcement last night by E. W. Clark, executive vice-president of the Union Oil company of California, that a high-gravity producing oil well had been brought in at Compton Saturday gave rise to strong hopes that another great southern California oil field had been discovered. The new Union well, drilled in virgin soil, is now flowing at 1000 barrels of 32 gravity oil per day, according to Clark.

'Calf Eats Paper,' So Frank Reitz Says

Frank W. Reitz of 900 Cypress street, Burbank, is one of The Glendale Evening News' great family of readers. He enjoys the paper thoroughly. So does his calf.

Mr. Reitz tethers the younger member of the bovine family to a tree in front of his house. The motor carrier of The Evening News sometimes throws the paper within distance of the animal. And you know what happens. The little cowlet digests every word we write. Here's hoping it chokes on this article should the paper get too close tonight.

Three Die When Home Burns at Vancouver

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 6.—Mrs. Jack Zemel, aged 35, her daughter and son, aged 2, were burned to death when their home was destroyed by fire here early Wednesday. The mother, a paralytic, was found alongside the body of her son in the basement. The little girl's body was found near the bath, where she was trapped in the flames. The husband had been separated from the family for some time. He accompanied police in identifying the remains.

Jayhawkers Reunion To Be Held Saturday

Saturday, September 8, is the date for the great fall rally of the Jayhawkers of all Southern California. Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles, will be the place and all day the limit of time. PARADE TO CLOSE SCIOT CAMPAIGN

Outside Pyramids Will Assist In Celebrating Glendale's Membership Drive

Responses that have been received to the invitations sent out to various Pyramids of Sciots throughout Southern California indicate that there will be a strong representation of visiting Sciots when the big parade that is planned by Glendale Pyramid No. 39 starts down Brand boulevard from the corner of Lexington avenue tomorrow night at 7 o'clock, while the local members of the organization will make one of the most imposing units in the entire parade.

The affair is being planned to mark the close of the membership drive that has been staged to increase the strength of Glendale Pyramid No. 39, and the figures already turned in to the search Arthur H. Dibbern show that at least 150 have joined since the drive started, bringing the total membership of the new Pyramid up to close to four hundred.

Band Heads Parade
Headed by the 30-piece band of Glendale Pyramid, the procession will march down Brand boulevard to Colorado street, turning there and marching back to the hall at 331 North Brand, where the business session and entertainment that is to form one of the features of the occasion, will be held.

All of the committees that have been working on the plans for the parade and the teams that have been enlisting recruits to the Pyramid will report at the meeting tonight, and final details will be settled for the conduct of the celebration.

The organization of the band, in the short time that Glendale Pyramid has been in existence, is regarded as one of the outstanding accomplishments of the organization, as, in addition to developing the musical talent of the members who were already residents of Glendale, the band has been the means of bringing to Glendale a number of excellent performers and of placing them in remunerative employment here.

S. C. Packer Family in Chicago on Big Trip

According to reports received by Mr. and Mrs. Don H. Packer, 141 South Columbus street, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Packer and their daughter, Miss Doris Packer, of 362 Riverdale drive, who are touring the East, have reached Chicago on their itinerary. They report a marvelous trip through the Canadian Rockies. In Chicago they are the guests of Mrs. Packer's sister. Recently they were the complimented guests at a family dinner at which Miss Packer made the acquaintance of seven cousins whom she had never seen.

One of the great pleasures of the trip was a visit to Menominee, Mich., the old home, where Mr. and Mrs. Packer spent their school days. They expect to return to Glendale about the first of October.

G. B. WOODBERRY TELLS FISH STORY

Local Man Returns From Long Motor Trip to Yellowstone Park

George B. Woodberry of 700 North Verdugo road, one of Glendale's pioneer residents, returned home the first of the week with a fish story for his seven weeks' trip over 4,000 miles of the west that would make any disciple of Isaac Walton green with envy.

Mr. Woodberry accompanied W. W. McElroy of 510 South Adams street, and below the falls in the Yellowstone river in Wyoming they could not take the fish out fast enough.

"If one didn't watch out the fish would take the bait, tackle and all," said Mr. Woodberry.

Encounter Rough Roads
The two travelers left this city July 13 and motored north to Oregon by way of Crescent City and Grants Pass. Mr. Woodberry advises people to avoid that route. Once in Oregon, however, the Columbia River highway drive is well worth the disagreeable roads.

Mount Hood, Tacoma, Seattle, Spokane, Wenatchee, Couer d'Alene lakes, Banff, Lake Louise and Yellowstone were among the principal points of interest. Mr. McElroy remaining at Butte, Mont., on business for another month. Mr. Woodberry returned home, reporting recent rains in the northwest which made motoring a perilous pastime.

NEW STYLES IN FALL FOOTWEAR

Pendroy's Shoe Department Shows Latest for Women and Misses, Too

The importance of the correct and desirable footwear for women, misses and children of all ages has not been overlooked by Z. P. Morse, manager, and N. C. Smith, assistant manager, of the shoe department at the Pendroy department store, in assembling their fall and winter stock.

For women and misses the Pendroy shoe department offers many charming new styles in fall footwear. They are showing many novelties for dress occasions, which will delight the eye of women seeking for something ultra-fashionable. For street wear as well as for indoor dress occasions there are some unusual smart oxfords and strap pumps, and all at attractive prices.

One of the features of this department of the big store at the corner of Brand and Harvard are the school shoes for growing girls. Mr. Morse has added this season a beautiful line of growing girls' oxfords and strap pumps, ideal for high school wear.

And the kiddies haven't been overlooked. Indeed, they have been well remembered in the extensive line of "kiddy" shoes for all ages and wear.

Chicago Child Bolts Quarter and Pennies

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—Roy Coffey, 22-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coffey, thinks he's a savings bank.

He's recovering today after having swallowed a quarter, five pennies, several buttons and other knick-knacks that came his way. The quarter and three pennies were dislodged, but the two other coppers remained with him, seemingly with no ill-effect.

Roy discovered the coins while exploring his home during his mother's illness. Mrs. Coffey, by inserting two fingers deep in the baby's mouth, forced it to cough up part of the money.

Mrs. Coffey is kept busy watching Roy to see that he does not masticate a can-opener, a piano or pin-cushion while she's busy.

Dog's Nerves May Be Grafted Into Human's

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Dod nerves may soon be an ordinary substitute for worn-out human nerves. Doctor Gossett, distinguished French surgeon, recently told British surgeons that he has taken the fresh nerve of a dog and grafted it on the ulnar nerve in a man's arm, with excellent results. Sensibility was obtained in the man's arm in 143 days and the power of movement in 340 days.

Connecticut Kids Must Have Scooter Licenses

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 6.—So numerous have gas-propelled scooters operated by children become that Connecticut motor vehicle officials are obliged to issue a warning that their operation must be limited to duly licensed motorists and the vehicles must be registered like a grown-up's auto. Hereafter the poor little rich child will need a governess clinging to the end of the scooter if it goes outside private grounds.

MAH JONGG GAMBLING?

Whether mah jongs, the game favored by American society, is a contest of chance is puzzling the Philippine courts. Eleven Chinese and one Filipino arrested in Manila recently for playing the tile pastime called there mah jongs or pung-chow, have appealed to the court of first instance as a test case in view of the growing interest in the ancient Chinese game in the islands.

DEALER EXPLAINS FLAT RATE PLAN

R. E. Corrigan Tells Method
Of Reducing Service
Charges on Cars

The meaning of "flat rates service," which has been the cause of much discussion among automobile owners, is explained by R. E. Corrigan, Dodge Brothers agent, 116-120 West Colorado.

"In the first place," according to Mr. Corrigan, "it means that a careful study was made of the thousands of operations that might enter into the repairing of a motor car. On the basis of these time-studies, reasonable time allowances for every conceivable service job were established, and the mechanic is required to complete each job within the allotted time."

"When an owner brings his car to the service station for repairs," says Mr. Corrigan, "we are able to quote him a positive figure for the work to be done. We are also enabled to give him a definite delivery promise, with the knowledge that the car will come out of the shop on time. In short, flat rates service means that the service station is able to tell the owner exactly how long it will take to repair his car and the price of such repairs. It permits the selling of service on a businesslike basis."

Illiteracy is so general in Portugal that there is little call for optical goods and none is manufactured in that country.

TRAIN HELD UP BY INSECT ARMY

Engineer Forced to Clean
Drivers, Sand Tracks,
Before Proceeding

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 6.—An army of mysterious insects, numbering into the millions, attacked the Montgomery Tuscaloosa hotel passenger train, on the Mobile & Ohio railroad, near here, throwing the passengers into a near-panic and forcing Engineer Sloan to stop his engine, clean his drivers, and use sand in order to reach Montgomery.

The insects were evidently strangers to this climate, as none of the train's crew or passengers were able to identify the breed. They came down as thick as rain for over two miles along the route, the engineer said. As soon as the attack was made the engineer closed his cab windows, and the windows in all the cars were shut. Soon the engine wheels began to slip and the engineer could not see two feet ahead.

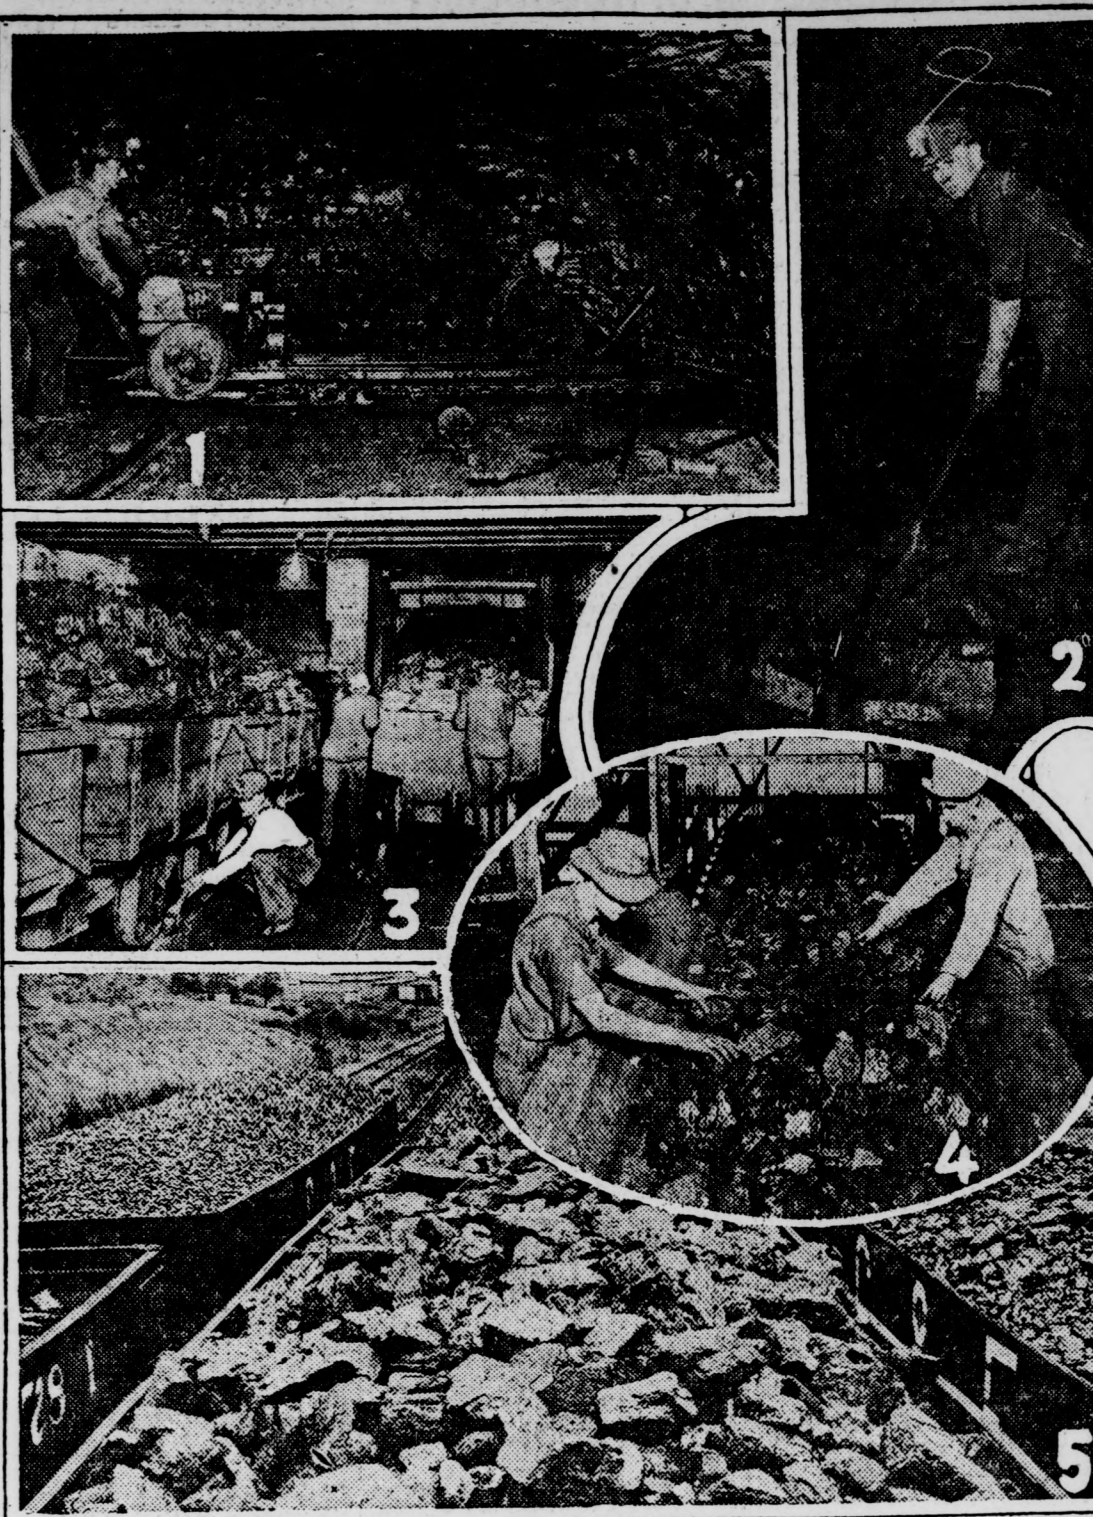

When members of the train crew got down to clear the engine wheels of the crushed and greasy insects they were battered on every side and were forced to wait several minutes until the milling swarm subsided.

When the train pulled into the union station here dead insects numbering into the millions were caked in a solid mass of grease, upon the front of the engine. A huge fire hose was required to wash them off. The passengers scattered throughout the city and related their thrilling experience.

'ROUND TRIP' TO GERMANY FOR $25

Birth Certificate, Used as Passport, Unchallenged
On Whole Junket

NEW CONCORD, Ohio, Sept. 6.—A round trip to Germany, costing him only $25, has just been completed by Horace W. Bickle, 20, Pittsburg, a senior at Muskingum college here. Bickle made the journey without a passport, a Pittsburg birth certificate serving as a substitute.

Bickle left home with $25 and shipped on the George Washington, working his way to Bremerhaven. There he exchanged his money for German marks and a result had a large "roll."

He said it cost him 25 cents in American money to ride from Hamburg to Berlin, where he bought a fine straw hat for 30 cents. No meal cost him more than 25 cents, he said.

While in Germany he visited the Rhine valley and its more important cities. There was little evidence of suffering or privation of any sort, he stated.

Before leaving home Bickle obtained a certificate of his birth. The certificate bore the official seal of the city of Pittsburg. In one corner of the certificate Bickle placed a kodak picture of himself. Wherever he presented a certificate it was accepted as readily as though he had gone to the trouble and expense of obtaining a regular passport, he said.

Completing his tour, Bickle returned to port and shipped home on the same vessel on which he went overseas.

Keg Explodes; Poker Players Sip Liquor

BELLAIRE, Sept. 6.—Hot weather here recently is credited with breaking up a poker game. A ten-gallon keg, said to have been hidden on the roof of a building, expanded and burst because of the heat. The liquid poured down into a room in which a poker game was progressing. The players ceased their efforts at coaxing aces and got under the stream pouring through the roof, it is claimed.

Highest Priced Votes Cast in Ohio Village

BYESVILLE, Sept. 6.—This village claims the highest-priced votes in Ohio. At the recent primaries approximately 25 persons voted, there being only one ticket in the field with no contests. Officials, however, were on duty at five precincts throughout the day. The count was completed in a few minutes after the polls closed. The average price per vote was $15.

FRENCHMAN BEAT COLUMBUS, CLAIM

Jean Cousin Saw American Continent First, Says
Corsican Paper

PARIS, Sept. 6.—Four years before Christopher Columbus planted the Spanish flag in the sandy soil of the island of San Salvador and proclaimed the "new land" to be the domain of Queen Isabella, the mainland of America had already been discovered by Jean Cousin, a French sailor.

That is the contention of the Corsican Review, a French publication printed in the interests of the island of Corsica.

Setting out from Dieppe in the spring of 1488 in a small sailing vessel manned by a select crew, the French mariner was carried by the gulf stream to the coast of what is now Brazil, near the mouth of the Amazon.

Cousin, however, lacked the foresight and initiative to make capital of his exploit. His own account of the voyage, deposited in the naval archives in the city of Dieppe, was lost in 1604 when the English bombarded and almost entirely destroyed the city.

Cousin's first mate on the voyage was Vincent Pinzon, a Spaniard, who, with two brothers, later joined Columbus's crew. Voltaire de la Popeliniere in a "History of the World," written in 1582, credited Cousin with the discovery of the new continent. Other French history writers give the credit to Columbus.

RUSSIA SOON TO BALANCE BUDGET

Soviet Trade Delegation to London Gives Figures to Support Belief

LONDON, Sept. 6.—"Russia's financial position is not only improving more rapidly than that of any other country in Europe, but it is approaching the not very far-distant point at which the budget will be balanced without any deficit."

This is the statement made here by the Russian Trade Delegation in answer to an assertion in the house of commons recently that extension of trading facilities to Russia was not possible because her financial condition did not warrant guarantees for merchants.

The delegation states that the annual budget figures, which showed a deficit of 554 million gold rubles in 1922 on nine months' working, show only a 362-million-rubles deficit for the whole of 1922-3.

An official table was presented which shows the percentage of national expenditure covered by taxation, income from railroads and other state enterprises (in-

POOR BOX THIEF GETS JAIL TERM

Ten Years' Sentence Passed
On Criminal Detected by Church Janitor

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—Scoring James Dunn, 44, as "the nearest thief," Judge James Gay Gordon, Jr., of Quarter Sessions court here, recently sentenced Dunn to ten years in the county prison for robbing the poor box of a church. Dunn's long police record gave him no chance of judicial mercy.

The capture of Dunn was due to a bit of clever amateur detective work on the part of William Koenig, a caretaker of St. Ludwig's Roman Catholic church.

Koenig heard someone enter the church and went upstairs. There he saw Dunn, apparently kneeling in prayer in one of the pews. As Koenig was about to leave he saw the supposedly praying man watching him closely between interlocked fingers and forced to be on guard. Slamming the door at the back of the church to make the kneeling man think he had departed, Koenig stealthily crept up to the gallery and peered over.

For a moment all was silence—nothing but the light streaming down from the stained glass windows. Then suddenly Dunn arose, glanced hastily about, and made a cat-like rush for the poor box, prying frantically at its lid. Koenig leaped downstairs and was upon him in an instant, subduing him after a brief struggle.

cluding foreign trade) and the emission of paper money, or, in other words, the deficit.

From these figures the delegation claims that (1) inflation is steadily decreasing, (2) the fiscal situation is as steadily improving, and (3) this double process is not having an adverse effect upon commerce and industry.

Use Chicken Blood in War on White Plague

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Consumptives are promised a new recruit in the fight against the disease in the discovery of Dr. Jose Maria Torras, a Spanish medical man.

Torras claims he has discovered a new serum, prepared from the blood of chickens, and that it has met with success.

The serum is prepared from a secret process, the hen's blood being strengthened with citrate and chlorate of sodium and calcium phosphate. Torras believes that the calcium is primarily responsible for the success of the serum, which is injected into the muscular tissue.

Dr. Torras is a disciple of Pasteur, and his discovery is the culmination of many years of research.

Many Spanish and Continental doctors and specialists are reported to have tried the serum with great success.

Horse Racing Again For Southland Sports

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 6.—With building of the Culver City race track scheduled to start September 10, running horse races are certain to become a reality on that track by December 1, it was learned today.

Tom Bourke has telegraphed Dick Ferris that he will arrive here soon in company with William Meyers. Charles Hay, racing official from Kentucky, has also assured officials of the new track that he will line up 500 horses for the Culver City track.

Meyers will superintend construction of the track. He built the Hawthorne track near Chicago. Four large stables to care for the horses will also be built.

A swallow flies about sixty-five miles an hour, carrier pigeon averages fifty, wild goose forty, pheasant thirty-eight, and crow twenty-five miles an hour.

Indian Society Will Convene In Chicago

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—Many a wild aboriginal war-whoop will be heard, teepees and evening camp fires will dot the landscape and tomahawks will be carried. And it will occur right in Chicago.

The annual convention of the American Society of Indians, which will be held here during the week of September 24, is expected to make this city, in several regions, resemble a mammoth Indian reservation.

Many redskins will gather around the campfires and smoke the pipe of peace. Representatives of Indian tribes in tribal regalia will assemble here from all parts of the nation and partake in a pow-wow.

Most drinking water in Mexico is impure and the water filter is practically unknown outside hotels or homes of foreigners.

Buried in Well, Man Remains Unperturbed

GALESBURG, Ill., Sept. 6.—Having a well cave in on him and being buried several hours under forty feet of earth is all part of a day's work for Camel Ross.

When that happened to him the other day the whole countryside—everyone except Ross, that is—got all excited about it. Rescuers came so thick and fast they nearly got in one another's way. There was a general disposition toward hysteria.

Someone thought of running a pipe down to give Ross air. Then all set to work digging. As hour after hour passed they finally abandoned hope of finding anything except his body.

Instead, he was alive and fairly well satisfied, although a little soiled, when dug out.

Ross complained just a mite. He said his shoulder had been hurt slightly, but a little liniment soon fixed it, and he returned to his well-digging.

Pasteur announced his discovery of inoculative remedy for rabies, May 19, 1884.

THE GLENDALE

"Her Fatal Millions," featuring Viola Dana, shows at the Glendale theater for the last times today.

In the cast supporting this piquant little star are Huntly Gordon, Allan Forrest, Edward Connelly, Joy Winthrop and Kate Price.

The story is from the pen of William Dudley Pelley and William Beaudine is the director. Metro releases the production, which is lavish in its settings and bears the earmarks of patient, high-caliber work.

Anyone enjoying breezy comedy with a dash of drama will enjoy "Her Fatal Millions," telling, as it does, the charming story of a girl who borrows motor cars, furs, gowns and even a husband, that she may pretend to her former sweetheart that she is a millionaire.

THE GATEWAY

"Where the North Begins," with Rin-Tin-Tin, the famous police dog, shows at the Gateway theater today. It is a glamorous picture of love and adventure in the far frozen places of the Canadian northwest.

Chester Franklin directed the feature. He is a great admirer of dogs. While visiting his brother, Sidney Franklin, who was directing "Brass" for the Warner Brothers, he was introduced to Harry Raff.

The result is that he was asked to direct "Where the North Begins," which is an original story of his own. The story concerns the efforts to get a young French-Canadian trapper out of the way, to have a free hand with the trapper's girl. But the big dog, Rin-Tin-Tin, saves him. Pat Hartigan and Claire Adams play the chief roles.

MORE AMERICANS IN DEATH LISTS

construction and these issues will find a ready market throughout the financial world," the secretary declared.

Cables Restored
Cables are working at Nagasaki, Kobe and Osaka, American Consul James P. Davis at Shanghai informed the state department today.

"Admiral Anderson with the Huron and a destroyer division war due to arrive at Yokohama September 5," Davis said. The Sacramento is due at Woonsoo today to remain there and relay radio messages.

Food, clothing and material to construct temporary dwellings are badly needed, Ambassador Wood cabled the state department today.

He estimated that more than a million persons are homeless in the Tokyo area. His message follows:

"Any aid from the American people for over 1,000,000 homeless Japanese should take the form of tinned meats, condensed milk, flour, underclothes, galvanized iron sheets and dimensioned timber for one-story shelters."

Tokio and Yokohama
Dead Total 240,000

MANILA, Sept. 6.—An unofficial radio message from the United States Asiatic fleet, now en route to Japanese ports to assist the destitute Americans and other foreigners, victims of the disaster of Tokio and Yokohama, was received here today stating that 240,000 had perished in Tokio and Yokohama alone. A similar number were injured, the message added.

The large naval transport Pecos is loading 30,000 tons of foodstuffs for Japanese relief and will probably sail tomorrow.

Foreign Deaths Few
The Pacific Mail Steamship company here received a wireless message from Kobe, via Nagasaki, stating practically all foreigners are proceeding to Kobe from destroyed Yokohama.

The message pointed out that the loss of foreign life in Yokohama will not be as great as at first anticipated. Foreign casualties in Tokio have not been ascertained, but the message added the Japanese casualties will probably exceed first estimates.

The Canadian Steamship company offices here received a wireless message today from Yokohama stating that their vessel Empress of Australia is safe in that port, but is unable to sail on account of a damaged propeller sustained when she fouled another ship during last Saturday's typhoon and storm.

U. S. Officer Safe
Major George Cohen, chief of the Manila intelligence office, who was in Japan during the disaster, is reported today to have escaped harm.

The Philippine Red Cross expects to have fully a dozen doctors and sixty nurses aboard the transport Merritt when she sails at midnight tonight for Yokohama.

According to plans given out today the Red Cross will furnish equipment and personnel for three complete hospitals of 750 beds each, well supplied with all necessities.

TAGGING ALL BASES

Babe Ruth smote his thirty-third homer of the season, tying Cy Williams, while the Yanks were trimming the Athletics, 6 to 3.

The Reds' pennant hopes folded up like a letter when the Pirates obtained another decision, 8 to 2. The defeat placed the Reds in third place.

The Senators beat the Red Sox
8 to 4, giving them the long end of the series.

COUGHS DISTURB SCHOOL

School teachers should give the same advice to children who have coughs as did this Florida teacher. "I recommend FO-LEY'S HONEY AND TAR to the children in my school who had the 'flu' and good results came whenever it was used," writes
Mrs. L. Armstrong, Oklawaha, Florida. Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates. Ingredients printed on the wrapper. Quickly relieves colds, coughs and croup.

THOSE VACATION SNAPSHOTS ONE GETS

NEW HUPP MODEL STIRS INTEREST

Bartlett & French Showing Latest Types to Local Motor Owners

The new model R-12 Hupmobile, that is now on display in the showrooms of the local distributors, Bartlett & French, 111 West Harvard, is attracting the close inspection of many motorists who are waiting to see what the firm is putting on the market for the coming season, and every facility is being offered by the firm to permit everyone in Glendale to see the new car and to learn all about its qualities. The showroom at the corner of Brand and Harvard has been secured for the display of the new model, and a representative of the firm will be on hand during the evenings to explain in detail all the fine points of the new product.

One of the striking features that adds materially to motoring comfort, says Lanier Bartlett, is the lengthening of the wheelbase and the installation of longer springs, which insures easy riding over any kind of roads. Comfort is also added, he declares, by using an extra sturdy frame with fine heavy cross-timbers.

The Hupp motor, which is already famed for the excellence of its performance under the hardest conditions, has been improved by the Hupp engineers to a point where it delivers smoother operation with a pronounced increase in power, acceleration and economy.

"The new Hupp," Mr. Bartlett states, "possesses the ability to get away in the flash of a second, making it the ideal car for traveling in heavy traffic, while the extra roomy construction affords greater comfort and convenience to driver and passenger alike. The model R-12 is a distinct step in progressive motor construction, and it enhances the Hupp reputation for sterling worth to a degree that is surprising even to the enthusiasts who have owned and driven Hupps for years and who know what Hupp quality really means."

Baseball in Britain Nurtured by Legion

LONDON, Sept. 6.—The American Legion games in London's 1923 baseball season, just terminated, were attended by over 20-000 people—ninety-five per cent of whom were British—according to the Legion's secretary.

The average attendance for each game was about 2000, and the Legion is hopeful of further popularizing America's national game next year.

Proclamation!

WHEREAS, the civilized world has been stricken with horror at the catastrophe that has befallen the kingdom of Japan, where earthquake and fire have slain hundreds of thousands of innocent people and have rendered millions homeless and hungry, and

WHEREAS, it has ever been the custom of the United States of America to be the first to extend the hand of practical sympathy and assistance to the sufferers of the world, in-respective of race or location, and

WHEREAS, President Coolidge has designated the American Red Cross as the agency through which the aid of America is to be extended to the suffering people of Japan, calling on the people of the United States for $5,000,000 with which to alleviate their agonies, of which Glendale's quota has been fixed at $8,432.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, SPENCER ROBINSON, Mayor of Glendale, do hereby urge most strongly on every citizen of this warm-hearted and prosperous city the necessity of raising this sum, and as much more as may be needed, in the shortest time possible, in order that Glendale's contribution may bring speedy relief to the destitute survivors of Japan's tragedy, and that every aid be given to the Glendale Chapter of the American Red Cross in its efforts to raise the sum that has been asked of this city.

Given under my hand and the seal of the City of Glendale, this sixth day of September, A. D., 1923.

(Signed) SPENCER ROBINSON,
Mayor of Glendale.

Sidelights on Japan Quake

U. S. Officers Safe
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—
Major William C. Crane, Jr., and his wife are safe, according to a radio message today from Tomi-oka, Japan, received by the Corporation of America here. Major Crane was one of the United States military attaches of the American embassy at Tokio.

Colonel Reber, American representative of the Radio Corporation in Japan, also was reported safe.

Steamer Rushes Aid
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—
One of the contingent of first vessels to give succor to stricken Japan will be the big freighter, Grace Dollar, of the Dollar Steamship company, which is today loading at Hong Kong, according to Robert Dollar, president of the company.

Dollar cabled his son, Harold,
$3000 with which to purchase foodstuffs and instructed him to sail for Yokohama or Kobe. Six days will be required for the vessel to reach a Japanese port, according to the Captain Dollar is preparing a list of available relief vessels in response to a request from Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover.

Embassy Staff Escape
WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—All members of the staff of the American embassy in Tokio have now been accounted for, according to official dispatches to the state and war departments today.
Ambassador Wood reported the safety of all his assistants except Major and Mrs. William C. Crane, the former a language officer,
but a later message from Lieutenant-Colonel Charles Burnett, the American military attaché at Tokio, stated that the Cranes were safe. Burnett's dispatch also dissipated reports that he had been killed.

Warships Aid Relief
WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.— Twelve American destroyers are now anchored off Yokohama and are aiding in the relief work, while the destroyer tender Black Hawk, loaded with supplies, is speeding from Tsingtao, China, to Japan, the navy department announced today.

Another destroyer division was reported at Chefoo, China. These ships are expected to go to Yokohama also.

Ship Rice Cargo
WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The first vessel to leave continental United States with relief supplies for Japan, will be the steamship President Taft, sailing from San Francisco today, according to a shipping board announcement.

The Taft, carrying 100 tons of rice, will arrive at Yokohama on September 21.

Missionaries Saved
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 6.
—All Methodist missionaries in Japan are safe, according to a cable message received here by representatives of the board of foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The cable merely said: "All missionaries safe."
This message, it was pointed out, might be interpreted as meaning all Christian missionaries were safe, but the Methodist officials said it probably referred only to those of that faith.

Emperor Gives Thanks
WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—President Coolidge today received the following cablegram from the emperor of Japan:
"Deeply touched by your profound sympathy and kindest offer in our appalling calamity. I beg you to accept my heartfelt gratitude to you and the American people."
"Yoshihito."
The message was apparently sent from Sengai.

FORD IN CONFERENCE
WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Henry Ford and his son Edsel conferred at the war department this afternoon with Secretary Weeks on the offer of the Ford interests to lease the government's nitrate properties at Muscle Shoals, Alabama.

PRINCESS IS BURIED
LONDON, Sept. 6.—Impressive funeral services were conducted here today for the late Princess Anastasia, according to the ritual of the Greek orthodox church, of which she was a member.

ASKS FORD'S LEASE
WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—President Coolidge has asked Henry Ford to agree to lease the government's great nitrate plants and water power projects at Muscle Shoals.

Money Pours Into Fund
WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Generous Americans are rising to the emergency of Japanese relief, just as they poured their dollars into the devastated war zones, officials of the American Red Cross said today after receiving preliminary reports from various sections of the country on the progress being made in the $5,000,000 drive.

It was unofficially estimated this morning that approximately $2,000,000 has already been raised for the stricken Japanese, and contributions are coming in steadily.

C. L. Smith Is Back From Hunting Trip

C. L. Smith, the Chevrolet dealer for Glendale, returned home at 1 o'clock this morning from a deer hunting trip in the Santa Barbara National Forest Reserve.
Mr. Smith was one of a party of sportsmen making the trip, none of the other members, however, being residents of Glendale.

"There are deer in the mountains, but they hide close and are hard to get. We got one and had a wonderful outing. We left Saturday, returning at 1 o'clock this morning."

Mr. Smith wore a beard when he arrived at his plant, Colorado and Orange, this morning, for he was not within reach of a razor since Saturday. Mr. Smith is also an experienced fisherman, having a cabin in the San Bernardino mountains. So he commented:

"These whiskers make up a hunting beard—not a fishing one."
Asked regarding the reduced prices on all models of the Chevrolet, Mr. Smith declared that the price reduction announced is speeding up sales.

PLAN TO SELECT WINNING ORATOR

Members of Realty Board to Contest for Honor of Representing City

Entries for the home town contest that is to be held between the orators of the Glendale Realty Board were asked at yesterday's luncheon in Jensen's Egyptian Village, when William McMillan, chairman of the education committee, urged those who desire to compete for the opportunity to represent Glendale at the annual convention of the California Real Estate Association next month at Sacramento to send in their names at once. In the event that Mr. McMillan secures the ten or twelve entries that he hopes to have he expects to stage the contest before a public gathering of the citizens of Glendale, with the object of selling Glendale to its own people as well as deciding who is to deliver the oration at the convention.

Sales made during August under the multiple listing system, as reported by Secretary E. P. Hayward, amounted to $32,050 on six pieces of property sold. The total number of August listings was seventeen, with a value of $151,700.

Committee to Report

The suggestion that was made at a recent meeting of the board, that a bureau of members who favor the continuance of the multiple listing system be formed within the board, and that the constitution and by-laws be amended to cover the new organization, was discussed at length, but no decision was reached. It was decided to submit the question to a committee of seven, who will present all the facts connected therewith at an early meeting of the board, for definite action.

W. L. Truitt moved that a survey of local real estate firms be made with a view to putting on a drive for new members who are to be solicited for the Glendale Realty Board, the drive to be made between now and the end of the year at a date to be determined.

Mayor Robinson Going On Mexican Invasion

Another invasion of Mexico! This time it's a peaceful one—all for peace, plenty and prosperity. The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce is directing the invasion and a delegation will leave for the southern republic tomorrow. And Glendale will have its part in the affair, for Mayor Spencer Robinson, Herman Nelson, Peter L. Ferry and Dr. Jessie A. Russell will be in the delegation, representing the Glendale Chamber of Commerce.

The visitation is part of a program to bring the southland and Mexico into closer touch and to establish trade relationships. During Mayor Robinson's absence Councilman Sam Davis will pilot the municipal ship of state.

England's Memorial Tribute To Late President Harding Described By Mrs. Ramsay

ENGLAND'S formal memorial tribute to the late president, Warren G. Harding, is described in a letter just received by Mrs. H. E. Bartlett of 333 West Broadway from Mrs. William W. Ramsay, past president of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, who is on an extended world tour and who was present at the Harding memorial service, Friday, August 10, in Westminster Abbey.

Mrs. Ramsay writes: "After my return from Ireland I spent a week in old Chester and returned to London a few days earlier than I had expected, to attend the memorial service for President Harding at Westminster Abbey. There were many Americans there and doubtless you have read of it, but I am inclosing an account of it.

"We were required to go to the embassy to obtain tickets, and I was seated in the north transept not far from the speaker. The nave was opened to people who had no tickets and was completely filled by people who were standing."

Includes Souvenirs

Inclosed in Mrs. Ramsay's letter was a picture from a London paper of a brown-skinned American Indian brave, Chief Deskahah, in Indian costume, on his way to the memorial service; an account from the London Daily Telegraph of the service, and the black-bordered service booklet given to those attending the program in Westminster.

The account from the London paper said in part: "It is characteristic of the historic abbey that it forms an ideal setting for all great national celebrations, both of joy and sorrow, whether it be the dazzling brilliance of a coronation or the solemn obsequies associated with the passing of one known to fame and entitled to special honor."

Many Came From Afar
"Yesterday the grey walls harmonized as few other buildings could have done with the sombre scene. It was a wonderful gathering, representative not only of every quarter of the globe, but also of every class in the state, from the highest to the humblest citizen, for the whole nave was thrown open to the general public without tickets."

"A large proportion of the congregation were Americans, and they included a party who had come over specially from Rotterdam. Among the crowd passing into the abbey was to be seen an Indian chieftain from Canada, in his picturesque native dress."

"In his address Canon Carnegie said: 'God has seen good to summon Warren Harding from his earthly task and to assign to him some other form of service elsewhere. Two great peoples, connected by intimate ties of kinship and fellowship, stand in spirit by his graveside today and wish him God-speed in his new enterprise. It is fitting that in this central shrine of our parent lineage Americans and Britons should unite in giving religious expression to the sentiments of mutual goodwill and sympathy and solicitude thus aroused.'

Abbey Bells Toll
"President Harding was a man who tried to do his duty. Britons and Americans alike recognize him as such, and by honoring him as such reveal themselves as in fundamental unity with each other."

"As the congregation was dispersing the abbey bells rang out a muffled appeal, causing many people to pause and look up at the ancient towers, on which the (Continued on page 4)

FAREWELL GIVEN 2 EXCHANGEITES

D. Ripley Jackson and W. C. Waring Leave Sunday
For Convention

The Glendale Exchange club's luncheon yesterday noon at the Tuesday Afternoon club house was in the nature of a farewell banquet for its two delegates who are leaving Sunday morning for Springfield, Mass., to attend the annual convention of the National Exchange club.

Captain D. Ripley Jackson of 1700 South Brand boulevard, president of the club, and W. C. Waring of 719 South Maryland avenue, who has been one of its most active members, both pledged themselves to do all in their power to boost Glendale.

George Whitaker of 110 North Kenwood street, vice-president of the club, announced that he would be unable to attend the convention, as he had planned to do, for business reasons. He is president of the drug store at 400 East Broadway known as the Broadway Pharmacy. The convention is to be held in his home city.

Tell About Hollywood

The Hollywood Exchange club's charter ceremonial Tuesday night was spoken of by three of its members, who were guests of the occasion, Paul Baer, G. Hanley Martin and Carl Reeder.

"The Exchange club has been a wonderful help to me," asserted Mr. Martin in a short after-dinner speech. "It has enlightened me to a number of things."

Dr. Henry R. Harrower of 1510 East Broadway, one of the most energetic members of the club, was appointed its "lecturing knight." Following this appointment, he was delegated to represent the local club at the Hollywood festivities.

President Jackson's comment upon Dr. Harrower's ability as a singer and an orator caused the subject of his eulogy to blush with modesty.

Film Town Known Abroad
"Alcoholic-wood" is the name by which Hollywood is known in Gotham, according to Dr. Harrower. He added that the movie city's fame abroad really is quite remarkable.

The only Quakerish aspect of the luncheon was an order for five gallons of Quaker State lubricating oil. This was the attendance prize for the occasion. It was donated by Fred S. Hill, proprietor of the garage at 124 South Orange street. Through an oddity, it was won by President Jackson—who is having the wings of his Lexington Lark preened at Mr. Hill's aviary. Therefore, he returned the order with instructions to credit his account.

Edward L. Powell is Glendale Resident

Edward L. Powell, assistant cashier of the Farmers & Merchants bank in Los Angeles, and a personal friend of Cameron De Hart Thom of the Glendale Realty company, 131 1/2 South Brand boulevard, has purchased a home through that agency at 640 North Jackson street. It is a new stucco house with which he is more than pleased.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nisbet of Los Angeles also have purchased the duplex at 456-458 Vine street from Edward Jacobs of 1441 Dorothy drive through the Glendale Realty company agency.

Rev. V. H. Brink Elected Head of Local Ministers

REORGANIZING for the fall and winter, Glendale clergymen met yesterday at the Central Christian church and elected Rev. V. H. Brink, pastor of the Central Avenue Methodist church, as president for the coming year. Rex C. Kelley was unanimously re-elected secretary.

The Glendale Ministerial association is actively interested in the relief being organized for the Japanese, and announcement is made that offerings will be taken in all Glendale churches next Sunday for the relief fund. Local pastors are urging attendants at their churches to come Sunday prepared to make contributions to the fund.

Glendale Advertised Well, Clendenins Find

Glendale, "The fastest growing city in America," is growing so fast that echoes of present plans for progress are even heard in the vacation talk in stores and other meeting places at the popular resorts, according to W. J. Clendenin of 600 South Central avenue, who with Mrs. Clendenin arrived home Monday from a week's sojourn at Brewer's camp at Big Bear lake.

Mr. Clendenin happened into one of the camp grocery stores one evening while in the valley and, hearing the words "Central avenue" in a casual conversation, he sensed that Glendale prosperity was the chief topic, and upon greeting the two talkers he found they were both Glendaleans and were discussing favorably pending improvements.

One man lived at the corner of Central avenue and Lexington drive, the other at the corner of Central avenue and San Fernando road, and Mr. Clendenin lived half way between, at the corner of Central avenue and Chestnut street. Not alone did their Central avenue locations make them kin, but they found that they all favored the proposed improvements.

In going to Big Bear Mr. and Mrs. Clendenin motored to San Bernardino, where they left their car and took the stage into the valley.

"We met many Glendale people," says Mr. Clendenin. "Mr. Potter, who lives on Hawthorne here, has a camp there and will enlarge it next season."

DEFYING THE LIGHTNING WITH A POOR SHIELD

SPIRITUALITY IS NEEDED IN ART

Religion Fundamental Says
Prof. K. L. Lillani,
Speaking Here

Real art is based on religion, according to Prof. K. L. Lillani, who recently delivered a lecture on "The Philosophy of Art" before the Glendale Art association and is planning to open up a studio here in Glendale.

Professor Lillani is a native of Bombay, India, and is thoroughly imbued with the mysticism of that country. The elements work together to produce the various phenomena of nature, in his belief. "When these elements and the main channels of the human body are in juxtaposition," he says, "life is at its perihelion. It is through these channels that the individual experiences contact with the elements."

"Expression of Soul"
When the artist is touched spiritually, according to Professor Lillani, he is "inspired"—and the urge from within to express himself is so great that he puts his inspiration on canvas, for the world to profit by. The result is art, which is eternal truth, the expression of the soul.

"Art, then," the professor says, "is the external manifestation of God in man, and hence has its basis in religion. Its great purpose is to awaken the souls of men to the eternal light within—and thus confirm the sense of unity."

The next meeting of the Glendale Art association will take place at the Public Library, Friday night, September 21. It is announced by Mrs. Roy A. Ballagh, president, who is largely responsible for interesting Professor Lillani in Glendale.

President Coolidge Head of Boy Scouts

President Calvin Coolidge has signified his readiness to accept the honor of the presidency of the Boy Scouts of America, according to a message received this morning by Scout Executive Harold F. Benner from James E. West, chief Scout executive, Boy Scouts of America.

The federal act of incorporation of the Boy Scouts of America provides that each year a formal report shall be transmitted to congress. The constitution of the Boy Scouts of America provides that the president of the United States shall be the honorary president of the organization, and all living ex-presidents of the United States shall be honorary vice-presidents, upon their acceptance.

Theodore Roosevelt received the title of chief Scout citizen because of his outstanding influence exerted for the advancement of the movement. President Taft and Wilson each served the movement as honorary presidents and are now honorary vice-presidents. President Harding was the third honorary president, and always an active and influential friend of the Boy Scouts.

TODAY—War Again at Camp Kearney.
TOMORROW—The Day Time Wives, Inc.; Servant Girls Scorn "Jobs." By George T. Hook, New York Staff.

By WILLIAM G. CAYCE
For International News Service

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 6.—Camp Kearney, once the center of interest and excitement when grounded rifles rattled and gruff commands were barked during the days America flamed with world war interest and friendly aliens were trained there, has forged to the front again in another war-like atmosphere.

Assistant United States Attorney Jack Layng has filed an injunction suit here in behalf of the United States government to restrain the Mack Copper Company and the Sam Ferry Smith Company from interfering with the removal of buildings and fixtures of the cantonment, which were sold about a year ago to the G. Weissbaum company, of Oakland.

The injunction complaint states that, when the Oakland Wrecking Company sought to tear down the old buildings of the camp and rip out several miles of railroad track that has been laid for special use at the camp, the Mack Copper Company, a Delaware corporation, which owns the ground on which the famous camp was built, showed armed resistance and several times used weapons to prevent the Weissbaum workers from tearing down the structures.

Once the feeling was so acute that the Weissbaum Company, which is said to have paid $25,575 for the training camp property, sought protection from the war department and appealed directly to official Washington for a detachment of soldiers to protect its workers. At that time United States Attorney Burke did not believe the government was involved nor even interested, for available information then tended to show that the government's lease on the grounds had expired.

A civil suit over the state of affairs was started by the Oakland concern in Superior court, but it did not suffice, and appeals were then made to the war department and the attorney general for assistance.

Under imperative orders from Washington to further investigate conditions and official documents concerning the lease on the camp site and the rights of the wrecking company to take away the buildings and fixtures, United States Attorneys Burke and Layng made a personal investigation of the entire situation. The result was that Layng remained in San Diego for two weeks while preparing data for the injunction suit.

According to the complaint, it appears that after the old camp buildings and the plumbing, railroad tracks and accessories were sold by the quartermaster's department to the Weissbaum Company the copper company executed a mortgage on the camp grounds to the Sam Ferry Smith Company for $235,990 and that this proceeding had complicated matters for the wrecking company. Also, there was a difference of opinion concerning the authority of the president of the copper company used in executing the lease to the war department for the camp location.

In the injunction complaint, which will be heard September 13, the government asks an order issued restraining the copper company and the mortgage holder from interfering with the Weissbaum Company in removing the fixtures and buildings from the old camp until a permanent injunction has been issued.

Britons Nominate Another Girl To Wed Popular Prince of Wales

Lady Mary Thynne

LONDON, Sept. 6.—'Tis a wonderful game they're playing over here on this tight little isle.

Society is just having the time of its young life and those, fortunate or unfortunate, as the case may be, without the social whirl are "sittin' in" with just as much zest.

The object of the game is to pick a bride for the bashful and retiring prince of Wales, who today, probably is regarded as the "best catch" in the world by scheming dowagers with marriageable daughters.

For months Britons have been selecting "brides" for the prince. There was Lady Rachel Cavendish and a score of others, including Princess Yolanda of Italy.

The prince probably could have had the hand of any of these for the asking—but he didn't ask.

Most of those mentioned apparently gave up hope, as they have since taken to themselves husbands of much lesser importance.

The latest candidate is Lady Mary Thynne. She's the daughter of the Marquess of Bath, but, if precedents are followed, she'll probably trip to the altar with Captain Somebody-or-Other, and the prince will continue to pursue the quiet tenor of his way.

All Britain would rest easier if the royal heir could "get the bloody thing over with."

For, since his tour of America, disquieting rumors have seeped into England from time to time. While in America the prince danced with society and shop girls. They didn't have "Lady" in front of their names, but they were comely and very, very fair. And then those vamping movie beauties. No telling what influence they might wield over a young prince.

And no loyal Briton wants to see Buckingham palace the "location" for a Yankee movie.

what, but less than having the carbon burned out. Is the engine likely to be harmed, while running with the kerosene and water leaking past the rings?

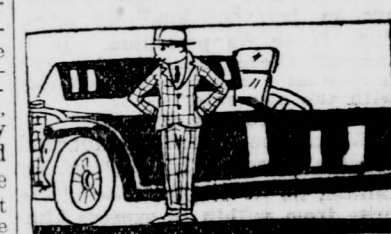

Answer: We should not advise running it long or fast, with such an enormous amount of kerosene and oil going through it. There is no object in using such a quantity of kerosene and the use of water is of questionable value. The manufacturers of this engine advise that one-half pint of kerosene be slowly sucked through it, each week that it is regularly used, in order to keep reduced carbon deposition and to keep the incrustations soft, but do not claim that kerosene will remove hard carbon of long standing. They recommend the oxygen treatment when carbonization becomes serious.

DO CARBURETORS WEAR OUT?

P. E. S. writes: My engine has been running a little "off color" lately and the mechanic at my garage says that the trouble is caused by the carburetor, which is worn out and should be replaced by a new one. I don't see much about a carburetor to wear out and would like to know from you whether his statement is correct?

Answer: Every device that has moving parts wears out in time and carburetors are no exception to this rule. The throttle-valve is in almost constant motion and its stem or shaft wears in its bearing and sometimes becomes so loose as to permit an air leak, that may seriously interfere with low speed engine operation. The float-valve often wears in its seat until it will no longer control the fuel level. Air-valve stems wear until their valves stick or otherwise give trouble and their springs lose their resiliency with age. Cams and linkages, used to operate air-valves and metering valves, become worn and develop lost motion, which prevents accurate carburation. Deterioration of a carburetor is rather slow, but quite certain and somewhat in proportion to the number of motion points involved in its design. Quite likely your mechanic is right if your carburetor has been in active use for a long time.

A man who worked in the packing department of a large store recently resigned and said he was going into business with another man, says Good Hardware.

"Don't you think that's rather a risky thing to do nowadays?" said the foreman when he heard about the new venture.

"Oh, that will be all right!" said the other. "Jim and I will make a success of it. I will furnish the experience and he will supply the capital."

"How long do you expect that plan to succeed?" asked the foreman.

"Oh, about five years," was the reply. "By that time, if all goes well, I'll have the capital and he'll have the experience!"

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

— BY HOWARD R. GARIS —

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE GREEN BERRIES
"Nurse Jane, I am going off to look for a little adventure," said Uncle Wiggily one morning, "and may I have the pleasure of bringing you back anything?"
The muskrat lady housekeeper thought for a moment and then she answered:
"The only thing I need is a string of green beads."

"Green beads," murmured Uncle Wiggily, writing the words down on a piece of white birch bark so he would not forget. "Do you want large or small green beads?" he asked.

"Small ones that I may string them on a thread and make a necklace," answered Nurse Jane. "I am going to the moving pictures with Mrs. Wibble-wobble, the lady duck, tonight, and I'd like a string of green beads to wear."

"You shall have them!" promised the bunny rabbit gentleman, "even if I have to go without my adventure."

Then he hopped away from the hollow stump bungalow, over the fields and through the woods.

The first adventure Uncle Wiggily had was when he helped a little red ant lady jump over a puddle of water. The puddle was only about as small as a penny, but to the ant lady it seemed as large as the ocean does to you.

"Thank you, Uncle Wiggily," said the little red ant lady.

The next adventure the bunny gentleman had was scratching the back of a toad lady. The toad lady was so fat she couldn't reach around to scratch her own back, so the bunny gentleman did it for her.

"Thank you, Uncle Wiggily," croaked the toad lady.

And the next adventure Uncle Wiggily had—oh, I must tell you all about that!

All of a sudden, as Mr. Long-eared was hopping along he came to a bush on which grew some round, green shiny berries.

"Ah, just what Nurse Jane needs for her string of green beads to wear to the moving pictures," thought the rabbit gentleman. "I'll pick her some of these green berries and she can string them."

But when he hopped closer to the bush he found it was holly.

Now, holly, you know, has very stiff, shiny green leaves, and on each leaf are many stickers, pricklers and thorns. So that it is hard to pick the holly berries without getting stuck. The holly berries are small, round and green in August, but, later in the year they turn shiny and red and look so beautiful amid the green leaves, to be made into Christmas wreaths.

Uncle Wiggily tried to pick some of the green holly berries

Oh, wow! Oh, trolley cars! howled the Wolf.

Want for you to do is to gather some of those green berries for me. Nurse Jane wants them for a necklace.

"All right! I'll get you some green berries and then I'll nibble your ears," said the Wolf. Then, not knowing about the prickly, sticky leaves, into the middle of the holly tree bush jumped the bad chap, to pull off some green berries. But the leaves caught in his ears, they pulled, they stuck and they pricked him.

"Oh, wow! Oh, wow! Oh, trolley cars!" howled the Wolf.

"This was a trick to catch me! I can't get out! I can't get out!" And he couldn't, for the prickly leaves held him fast.

But he shook loose a lot of green berries, which rolled out on the ground and Uncle Wiggily gathered them up.

"I'll bid you good day, Mr. Wolf," said the bunny, and away he hopped with the green berries for Nurse Jane's necklace, and the Wolf was stuck in the holly bush until his wife came with the scissors and cut him out.

So the bunny's ears weren't nibbled, and if the cow lady does not put water in the milk bottle to wash the face of the clock, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the big melon.

The newspaper headline writer entered his home and was greeted portentously by his wife and little son, says the Country Gentleman.

"George has been a naughty boy today," said the mother. "I am obliged to ask you to punish him."

The headline writer turned a reproachful glance upon his offspring.

"My boy," he began, "this hurts me more than—"

But son interrupted.

"Probe me, pa, before you flay me," he cried. "Lad, Nine, Scents Plot in Mother's Charge. Hints at Conspiracy. Fears Clash."

CRIMINALS FLEE MEXICAN CITIES

Hunted Men Hie to Jungles
Result of Recognition, Says Justice Agents

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Sept. 6.—Thousands of criminals, both from the United States and other countries, who sought safety in Mexico, are scurrying into the wilds of Central and South America to escape deportation, department of justice agents asserted here today.

Consternation is declared to reign among the criminal population of Mexico, especially in Mexico City and Tampico.

With Mexico not being recognized by the United States, the crime world looked there for refuge from law. From every part of the United States bank robbers, murderers, yeggmen and bandits fled to Mexico.

Federal agents declared today the clean-up had started and the government and many states had undertaken the task of locating and causing extradition of men and women wanted for various crimes.

A strong hand will be dealt likewise against the booze and dope smugglers, active for months on the Mexican border.

Standard's Gasoline Is Selling at 13 Cents

Motorists in Glendale who have been rejoicing over the merry war that is raging between the big producers, are wearing an even broader smile since the Central Supply Station, on the southeast corner of Central and Broadway, heralded the news in box car letters that Red Crown gasoline, a Standard Oil company product, was keeping pace with competition at 13 cents per gallon.

The prices quoted on Standard Oil company's gasoline are usually regarded as the barometer in the trade, and the present low prices are having an immense influence in helping to popularize the extended use of automobiles.

SIXTEEN RELIEF SHIPS ARE READY

Will Rush Cargoes to Japan
As Fast As Board Can Load Up Supplies

HONOLULU, Sept. 6.—Major General Charles P. Summerall telegraphed the war department at Washington stating that the Hawaiian reserve stock of food, shelter, medical needs and blankets were available for immediate shipment to Japan. The Hawaiian chapter of the American Red Cross registered twenty nurses and six physicians as potential relief unit for immediate dispatch to the stricken country.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The shipping board now has sixteen vessels on the Pacific coast which will sail for Japan within the next month, it was announced. They are:

Passenger vessels: President Taft, sails September 6; President Jackson, sails September 11; President Cleveland, sails September 20; President Jefferson, sails September 23; President Pierce, sails October 4.

Freight vessels: West Ivan, sails September 8; Bakersfield, sails September 9; Cuprum, sails September 10; Eldridge, (Columbia), sails September 10; Eldridge, (Admiral Oriental), sails September 12; West Kader, sails September 15; Edmore, sails September 21; West Sequana, sails September 22; West Orowa, sails October 1; Wheatland, Montana, sails October 5; Bearport, sails October 5.

Will Await Orders

It was stated at the shipping board that, in order to avoid any confusion and to render the most efficient service, the board will hold vessels in readiness for definite calls for carrying cargoes from specified ports. Upon request from the Red Cross the board will send the ship to pick up the cargo. It is felt that to send ships to various ports to await orders would mean loss of time and the quickest method is to hold the ships wherever they may be and have the location of the cargoes desired to be moved determined before sailing orders are issued.

Rice and Medicines

Orders were issued today by Secretary Weeks for the transport of rice, now at San Francisco, to be loaded immediately with food, principally rice and medical equipment and to sail on Friday for Tokyo. The Somme has a carrying capacity of 3200 tons. The executive committee of the Red Cross met today with Secretary of Commerce Hoover to go over the administrative organization of the American relief administration which recently withdrew from Russia and to put the distribution work in Japan in charge of Edward Frazer, former chairman of the Japanese chapter of the American Red Cross.

COMMENT That's All

Good News From Japan
Favor Air Disarmament
Glendale Has Heart!
Coachella Boasts a Booster
By Gil A. Cowan

CONFLICTING reports from Japan in the last twenty-four hours have had a tendency to minimize the toll of human lives taken by the earthquake, flood and fire. That is the best news we have heard.

Several little incidents which show the intensity of the earthquake shocks may be cited from a radio dispatch which says:

"The Japan bank building, reported destroyed, was the most massive modern structure in the empire. Its columns were eight feet in diameter, the walls six feet thick and the foundation firmly embedded in rock. The building was constructed thirty years ago.

"It was reported that six hundred persons met death when the Saska railway tunnel, the longest in Japan, collapsed. The tidal wave at Ito, on Idzumi peninsula, swept 7000 persons to death."

A dispatch from Indianapolis, American Legion headquarters, was crowded from the news columns yesterday. The writer believes it worthy of dissemination to Glendale people, so here it is:

"Sentiment among senators, congressmen, newspaper editors and well known citizens, was shown to be overwhelmingly in favor of the calling of a world air disarmament conference by the result of a referendum conducted by the American Legion and announced today.

"From a total of 335 replies received at the end of three weeks, it was found that 303 endorsed the legion's proposal, five gave qualified approval, ten were undecided and seventeen were opposed.

"In the list of those voting were twenty-one senators, seven congressmen, fourteen governors, 158 newspaper editors, thirty-five college presidents and others.

"Only two letters received by the legion during the past week, expressed definite agreement with the stand of President Coolidge that the time is not propitious for the holding of a conference. They were from Governor James G. Scrugham of Nevada, and Dr. Harry P. Pratt Judson, president of the University of Chicago.

"Referring to the Washington arms conference, Governor Scrugham said the limitation of navy armament was possible only because of changes developed in the art of war which made scrapping advisable."

Great Britain is feeling that "grand and glorious accord" in the matter of Japanese relief. At this time while her former ally, Italy, proceeds to settle a dispute with Greece as Signor Benito Mussolini's Roman conscience dictates.

And the flaming hatreds of the Balkan nations appear to be uncontrolled. It seems tragic that these countries must keep the world at war, yet they are buffer states between the occident and orient which, of course, bear the burden of the cross fire between two civilizations.

Glendale has a heart in the matter of Japanese relief. Today the Red Cross workers are stationed at all of the banks collecting the much needed funds for food and supplies needed by the stricken empire.

The Glendale Evening News is glad to transmit the $100 check of Dr. Henry R. Harrower to the American Red Cross for its relief work. Telegraphic reports state that relief ships already are steaming out of coast ports.

First American aid reached the refugees yesterday. What a wonderfully responsive old world this is!

Professor Harry Howe, principal of the Coachella High school, is a type of booster that Glendale sadly misses. He has been improving his spare time around here interesting local citizens in date culture. In other columns you will read a report of a meeting to be arranged here Tuesday night to advertise Coachella valley.

It was the writer's privilege last night to visit the office of The Illustrated Daily News in Los Angeles. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., has gathered about him a capable staff of newspaper men and each issue of his new morning paper shows improvement.

However, the establishment of any publication is not a light task to be accomplished overnight. Mr. Vanderbilt, being young, will profit by his experience in Los Angeles. No doubt success will crown his efforts.

Ozone, produced by electricity in the air-duct of a school building housing 1000 pupils, last winter caused two-thirds less absences for illness than before.

Indian actor, who has part in prologue and picture, "The Covered Wagon" at Grauman's Egyptian theatre, in Hollywood.

GLENDAL'S theatregoers are taking advantage of the offer of Sid Grauman, proprietor of the Egyptian Theatre at Hollywood, to stage a "Glendale Night" at "The Covered Wagon" on Tuesday, September 11, and already many of the choice seats that were allotted to this city and that were placed on sale Tuesday of this week in the office of The Glendale Evening News have been selected by those who are anxious to witness the performance of this classic of the screen.

One of the strongest attractions of "The Covered Wagon" is the cast that was chosen to present Emerson Hough's famous novel in its picture form, and Lois Wilson and Warren Kerrigan, who were cast for the principal parts, have earned new laurels by the manner in which they have portrayed the characters allotted to them.

Coachella Valley Date Culture Films Shown

The Coachella valley, between Palm Springs and Imperial, produces the finest dates in the world, according to W. L. Paul, president and manager of the Coachella Valley Date Growers' association, who delivered a lecture on "Date Culture" Tuesday night at Glendale Union High school auditorium.

The lecture was illustrated by films showing the luxurious growth of dates and other products in the Coachella valley. In addition to showing the cultivation of the fertile soil of this district, the films showed the four towns of the valley—Indio, Thermal, Mecca and Coachella, the latter being the heart of the date industry of California.

"It is not the Holy Land, not Persia, not Africa that produces the world's finest dates," said Mr. Paul, "but the Coachella valley. And when I make that statement, I can prove it. Analysis shows that the imported date contains about twenty-four per cent of sugar, which is not enough to preserve the dates for any length of time, so the growers dry them and then pour over them a sugar syrup, forming the typical product the American market is accustomed to, but which is a very inferior quality of date.

"Compare with this product our high-grade dates of the Coachella valley, yielding seventy to eighty and even ninety per cent of sugar. Such dates need no syrup to preserve them, but will dry and keep indefinitely."

Mr. Paul traced briefly the history of the date industry in the Coachella valley during his lecture.

MYSTERY SEEN IN DOUBLE MURDER

Brutal Slaying of Youth and Girl Rouses Threats of Lynchings

PORT ARTHUR, Texas, Sept. 6.—The nude bodies of T. O. Rial, 22, of Beaumont, Texas, and Miss Bessie Carl, 16-year-old Houston school girl, who had been missing since last Saturday night, were found on a lonely roadside near here late yesterday. The girl's head had been crushed and the boy had been shot.

Miss Carl was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Carl, of Houston.

Evidence of Struggle
The abandoned car which Rial and Miss Carl had driven from Port Arthur was found three miles from Beaumont, Texas, Sunday.

The bodies had been placed side by side half a mile from the main road on a forest trail. Police said they had been carried some distance after the murders.

Miss Carl had been the victim of assault, according to police. Her diamond ring was found near the automobile.

Lynching is Feared
Feeling was at fever heat here this afternoon, and should suspects be caught, it was feared there would be an immediate lynching.

Rial was a clerk in a Beaumont store. Miss Carl was visiting in Beaumont.

Police Find Body Of Youth Mutilated

BEAUMONT, Texas, Sept. 6.—Mysterious circumstances surrounding the murder of T. O. Rial, 22, and Bessie Carl, 16-year-old school girl, whose bodies were found near Port Arthur yesterday, were developed by disclosures of police late this afternoon that the body of Rial had been mutilated.

Although the couple left here Saturday night, physicians declared they had been dead only two days when found. Port Arthur authorities investigating the case believe they were held in captivity some time before slain.

English Food and Water To Accompany Papyrus

LONDON, Sept. 6.—An agreement to take Papyrus, England's foremost race horse, to the United States to race the best American 3-year-old, was signed Wednesday.

The English turfmen are confident the United States will permit importation of English fodder for the horse. Ben Irish, the owner, said he would not send Papyrus to New York unless he could take his own water and feed for the horse. Masseurs and trainers will accompany the animal, which will be guarded by detectives.

STRONG FOOTBALL TEAMS FORECAST

Coach Hayhurst of G. U. H. S. Tells About Material For Two Elevens

Prospects for a notable athletic season, in the opinion of Coach Normal C. Hayhurst, 341 Oak street, are very good for next term at Glendale Union High school.

"We will have the best material we have had for two or three years," he remarked. "We did not lose much of our athletic material last June by graduation."

The boys' athletic department at the local high school will be divided the same as the last school year, with Coach Hayhurst who is head of the department of physical education, directing the heavy-weight football team; Coach Howard Butterfield guiding the activities of the light-weight football team, and Coach Eugene Wolfe supervising the sports of boxing and wrestling.

Glendale Union High school remains in the Central Athletic league. Other high schools are South Pasadena, Alhambra, Monrovia, Covina and Citrus. Glendale's entry into the T. N. T. league, which is composed of San Diego, Long Beach, Pomona and Pasadena, has been postponed until next year. Los Angeles high schools form a league of their own.

Boys Already Reporting
In anticipation of a lively football season, a number of players are reporting at the high school gymnasium this week and suits have been issued to about a dozen of them. Coach Hayhurst stated that he expects to be in his office between 4 and 9 o'clock tonight and tomorrow night and on the grounds Saturday afternoon and that he would like to see any of the boys who are interested.

Among the boys who played on last year's heavy-weight team, and will be back in school, are Ronald West, who has been selected as captain for the new team; Clayton Phillips, guard; Leslie Brucker, substitute guard; Leslie Lavelle and Masuri Horii, ends; Richard Ryan, back field; Arden Gingery and Jack Thayer, substitute back fields. It is not known yet whether or not Lee Shannon will be back.

Good Prospects Listed
In the light-weight team much is expected from Marion Morrison. He is slated to be the star of the season. Others, who will be back in school, are Elmer Muff, Danta LaFranchi and Johnny Lovell. Eligibility rules, which require a player to attend the local high school a year before being placed on a team, will open the field to several boys, who were in school last term but prohibited from playing. A quartet of them is composed of Cyril Walton, Howard Elliott and Darrell Elliott and Jim Crow, who is from Portales, New Mexico.

Although the schedules have not been made out, it is anticipated that regular games will commence about October 19. Teams will be picked about the middle of October. Practice games will be held September 21 with Van Nuys. The heavy-weight team will go there and the light-weight team will come to the local gridiron.

Angel Luis Trains in Secret at His Home

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 6.—Luis Angel Firpo was not worried today over reports that the courts might stop his battle with Jack Dempsey on September 14.

"I will keep right on training," he said. "Tex Rickard will take care of the law suit."

Firpo is doing much of his work in secret. The real training is in the improvised gymnasium back of his cottage here.

'DOTS' MILLER DIES

KEARNEY, N. J., Sept. 6.—John "Dots" Miller, former major league star and manager of the San Francisco club of the Pacific Coast league, is dead at Saranac Lake, it was learned today by relatives residing here. Tuberculosis was assigned as the cause of his death.

Oxygen liquefies at 297 degrees below zero.

Four years ago an English tennis expert named A. Wallis Meyers sat himself down to his trusty typewriter and with the startling deeds of Norman Brooks, Wilding, Patterson and other stars of the British empire fresh in his mind compiled a world's ranking of net celebrities.

And he put at the top of the list a slightly built, fiery American named William M. Johnston. The choice drew much comment. There were Bill Tilden, R. Norris Williams and other Americans, as well as the English and even Spanish stars, to be considered.

But right now Meyers' dope looks good. For Johnston stands without an equal or peer in the world. He holds, by right of conquest, the world's tennis title. He succeeds Big Bill Tilden.

Johnston has been ranked with the greatest of the United States stars ever since he first won the national title, eight years ago. He is known affectionately as "Little Bill," to distinguish him from "Big Bill" Tilden. What he lacks in size—in legs and arms—he makes up in form. He must be classed as the greatest sharpshooter in the game. His placing is uncanny, Tilden himself will tell you.

Despite Johnston's size, he puts a world of power behind his drives when necessary. Francis Hunter of New Rochelle, the man Johnston defeated in the finals at Wimbledon a few weeks ago, has a weird service and a powerful drive, whatever his shortcomings may be. Johnston, however, outdrove and outstruck the New Yorker.

Johnston helped put American tennis back on its feet after the lapse due to the war by winning both the claycourt and the lawn titles in 1919, in addition to minor tourneys.

Johnston took on "Big Bill" in the claycourt tourney and outgeneraled and outplayed him to win the crown. The Longwood Bowl, one of the most prized trophies outside the national cups, was won by Johnston, who licked no less an opponent than R. Norris Williams.

When Johnston failed to capture the Wimbledon crown three years ago he left England muttering, "I go, but I shall return! Curses—!" And Cecil Parke, who eliminated him that year, said: "If he does come back, look up the cup."

Wherein Cecil was as nearly correct in his views as was Mr. Meyers.

Stoneham of Giants To Get Royal 'Can'

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service
NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Charles A. Stoneham, president of the New York Giants, who is under indictment for alleged complicity in local bucket shop scandals, is to be politely requested by the National league to sell his controlling interest in the Giants and retire from baseball, according to a report today.

It is said that organized baseball has arrived at the conclusion that Stoneham's connection with the game is no longer compatible with its desires, in view of recent disclosures. John Heydler, himself, has been quoted as saying that the publicity given Stoneham in the bucket shop investigations was "very embarrassing to the National league."

Heating other rooms than the one occupied by the fire-place was first attempted in Germantown, Pa., in 1753, the invention consisting of a cast-iron box built into the side of the kitchen fire-place and extending to another room to convey the heat by a pipe-like method.

Kearns Gives Firpo 'Razzberry Necktie'

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, Sept. 6.—Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, today said that the only person who could win the fight for Luis Angel Firpo next week was Babe Ruth.

"How?" he was asked.
"Ruth has a big baseball bat," Kearns replied. "If he loans it to Luis and lets the latter loose with it, why maybe Luis can knock out Jack, but it cannot be done any other way."

Kearns said he wondered where all the talk came about what would happen to Dempsey if Firpo landed one or two blows.

Kearns said that Dempsey would be whipped some day if he fought long enough, but declared that it would not be Firpo who would do the trick.

Hunters Bag Lots of Deer As Season Opens

REDDING, Calif., Sept. 6.—The deer season which opened Saturday, September 1, is in full swing. Fifteen of the animals were killed during the first day of the 1923 season by hunters from Yreka. The bucks were shot within five miles of the town. To date this season forty deer have been brought to Yreka.

Redding hunters have reported in with thirty since the opening of the hunting season. Deer are much more plentiful than is usual in this vicinity. Trinity county reports an especially abundant supply.

Lawyer Threatens to Enjoin Dempsey-Firpo

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Acting for Paddy Mullins, manager of Harry Wills, negro heavyweight, William Klein, an attorney, is planning, he said, to apply to the supreme court for an injunction to prevent the Jack Dempsey-Luis Firpo title contest in the Polo grounds on September 14.

"First, I'm going to find out the legal status of the case," Klein said, "and then I propose to act. I think Mr. Mullins has a good case. He has turned over to me a contract signed by Jack Dempsey, which, as I understand it, was drawn up under the supervision of the state boxing commission, the same body which, since July, 1922, put off sanctioning the bout, but which last week suddenly granted a license for the Dempsey-Firpo contest."

"Questions that I'd like to have the boxing commission answer are: why they did not give a license to Wills and why, after putting off Wills, they issued a license for the Dempsey-Firpo fight."

Ruth Ties Williams With 33rd Home Run

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—Babe Ruth plunged back into a tie with Cy Williams for major league home run honors here yesterday when he smashed one of Hulvey's shots for the circuit. It was his thirty-third. The Babe's homer was made in the sixth inning of the Yankee-Athletics game.

Instead of a slump in the dull months of June, July and August, Australian automobile dealers are having an all-year business because of the mildness of the climate during the present period that is usually considered their winter.

BIG MONEY NOW BECOMES TIMID

Looks Like Dempsey and Firpo Bout Will End 'Good Old Days'

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service
NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—If they speak from the heart and not from the wallet pocket, men in sport promotion must admit that the big money of the post-war period is slowly, but inevitably, drifting elsewhere. The paid admissions at nearly every sport event have dwindled to an alarming rate during the present year and for reasons obvious and compelling, to wit:

First—Lack of real money.
Second—Lack of interest.

It is this lack of money plus an overdose of exploitation that has caused followers of boxing to greet all box office men with a touch of austerity. Formerly, almost any kind of an attraction would produce a capacity house at something above popular prices. Today fights, notably those involving Ciriaco and Kilbane, Wilde and Villa, Dempsey and Gibbons, Wilson and Greb, play to meager attendance.

Too many fights and too little money is the answer. Insistent ballyhooing summoned the innocents in great numbers to see Leonard and Tonder and Firpo and Willard. It will do the same for Dempsey and Firpo, but there must be an end to everything, and we are disposed to believe that Dempsey and Firpo will supply it.

In baseball, lack of adequate competition is the answer. The Yankees are cakewalking in the American league, and interest is dying a belated death. The West seems to be more concerned with the Yankees than New York itself.

SERVICE TRANSFERS

Transfer of light and water service has been requested by the following residents and are now on file in the public service department at the city hall: Ellen F.
